(3) The decision of a procuring entity to reject a submission in accordance with this section, the reasons for that decision, and all communications with the supplier or contractor under this section shall be included in the record of the procurement proceedings and the decision of the procuring entity and the reasons therefor shall be promptly communicated to the respective supplier or contractor.

Acceptance of the successful submission and entry into force of the procurement contract

35. (1) A procuring entity shall accept the successful submission unless—

- (a) the supplier or contractor presenting the successful submission is disqualified in accordance with section 29;
- (b) the procurement is cancelled in accordance with section 33; or
- (c) the submission found successful at the end of evaluation is rejected as abnormally low under section 34.

(2) A procuring entity shall promptly notify each supplier or contractor who presented submissions of its decision to accept the successful submission at the end of the standstill period.

(3) The notice referred to in subsection (2) shall contain, at a minimum, the following information:

- (a) the name and address of the supplier or contractor presenting the successful submission;
- (b) the contract price; and
- (c) the duration of the standstill period as set out in the solicitation documents.

(4) Subsection (2) shall not apply to awards of procurement contracts where a procuring entity determines that urgent public interest considerations require the procurement to proceed without a standstill period.

(5) The decision of a procuring entity that urgent public interest considerations exist and the reasons for the decision shall be included in the record of the procurement proceedings.

(6) Upon expiry of the standstill period or, where there is none, promptly after the successful submission is ascertained, a procuring entity shall dispatch the notice of acceptance of the successful submission to the supplier or contractor who presented that submission, unless the Office orders otherwise.

(7) Unless a written procurement contract is required, a procurement contract in accordance with the terms and conditions of the successful submission enters into force when the notice of acceptance is delivered to the supplier or contractor concerned, so, however, that the notice is dispatched while the submission is still in effect.

(8) Where the solicitation documents require the supplier or contractor whose submission has been accepted to sign a written procurement contract conforming to the terms and conditions of the accepted submission—

- (a) the procuring entity and the supplier or contractor concerned shall sign the procurement contract within a reasonable period of time after the notice of acceptance is dispatched to the respective supplier or contractor; and
- (b) the procurement contract enters into force when the contract is signed by the respective supplier or contractor and by the procuring entity.

(9) Neither a procuring entity nor the respective supplier or contractor shall take any action that interferes with the entry into force of the procurement contract or its performance during the time between the dispatch of the notice of acceptance and the entry into force of the procurement contract.

(10) If the supplier or contractor whose submission has been accepted fails to sign any written procurement contract as required or fails to provide any required security for the performance of the contract, a procuring entity shall withdraw the award and either—

- (a) select the next highest ranked submission from among those remaining in effect, in accordance with the criteria and procedures set out in this Act and in the solicitation documents; or
- (b) terminate the procurement proceedings.

(11) Notices under this section are dispatched when they are promptly and properly addressed or otherwise directed and transmitted to the supplier or contractor or conveyed to an appropriate authority for transmission to the supplier or contractor by any reliable means specified in accordance with the Regulations.

Public notice of the award of a procurement contract or framework agreement

36. (1) Upon the entry into force of a procurement contract or conclusion of a framework agreement, a procuring entity shall promptly publish on its website or in any other electronic format, notice of the award of the procurement contract or the framework agreement, specifying the name of any supplier or contractor with whom the procurement contract or framework agreement was entered into, the goods or services to be supplied, the works to be effected and, in the case of procurement contracts, the date of the award of the contract and the contract price.

(2) Where the information referred to in subsection (1) is unavailable, a complaint may be made to the Regulator.

37. A procuring entity shall submit to the Office no Report of procuring entities later than three weeks after the end of each quarter a report of all contracts awarded during the immediately preceding quarter.

38. (1) Notwithstanding any other law for carrying Use of electronic means in public procurement out the purposes of this Act, public procurement under this Act may be undertaken using electronic means.

(2) Nothing in subsection (1) shall affect the validity of procurements effected by means that were lawful before the coming into force of this Part.

39. (1) In its communications with suppliers or Confidentiality contractors or with any person, a procuring entity shall not disclose any information if non-disclosure of such information is necessary for the protection of essential security interests of the State or if disclosure of such information would be contrary to law, would impede law enforcement, would prejudice the legitimate commercial interests of the suppliers or contractors or would impede fair competition, unless disclosure of that information is ordered by the court and, in such case, subject to the conditions of such an order.

(2) Other than when providing or publishing information pursuant to this Act, a procuring entity shall treat submissions in such a manner as to avoid the disclosure of their contents to competing suppliers or contractors or to any other person not authorized to have access to this type of information.

(3) Any discussions, communications, negotiations or dialogue between a procuring entity and a supplier or contractor shall be confidential, unless the disclosure is ordered by the court or required by law.

(4) Subject to subsection (1), in procurement involving classified information, a procuring entity may—

- (a) impose on suppliers or contractors requirements aimed at protecting classified information; and

- (b) demand that suppliers or contractors ensure that their sub-contractors, directors, officers and employees comply with the requirements aimed at protecting classified information.

Prohibition of victimisation

40. A person shall not be dismissed, suspended, demoted, disciplined, harassed, denied a benefit or otherwise negatively affected because—

- (a) he, acting in good faith and on the basis of a reasonable belief, has—
 - (i) notified the Director of Public Prosecutions, the Police, the Integrity Commission or the Office that his employer or any other person has contravened or is about to contravene this Act;
 - (ii) done or stated the intention of doing anything that is required to be done in order to avoid having any person contravene this Act; or
 - (iii) refused to do or stated the intention of refusing to do anything that is in contravention of this Act; or
- (b) his employer or any other person believes that he will do something described in paragraph (a).

PART IV

INVESTIGATION AND ENFORCEMENT

Complaints

41. (1) The Office may on its own initiative, or shall as a result of a complaint made under this Act, consider, inquire into and investigate any alleged breach of this Act.

(2) A person who wishes to allege or make a complaint that—

- (a) bid rigging or other forms of collusion between all or any of the interested parties to procurement proceedings has occurred; or

(b) an irregularity in procurement proceedings or a breach of this Act has occurred, may do so in writing to the Office.

(3) Notwithstanding any other written law, where a person has a reasonable belief that bid rigging or other forms of collusion between all or any of the interested parties to procurement proceedings has occurred, that person shall report the matter in writing to the Office.

(4) A person who knowingly and mischievously makes, or causes to be made, a false report to the Office or misleads the Office by giving false information or by making false statements or accusations, commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine of five hundred thousand dollars and to imprisonment for one year.

42. (1) Where the Office considers it necessary or desirable for the purposes of performing or exercising its functions, powers, or duties under this Act, it may, by written notice served on any person, require the person—

Power to obtain information and documents

- (a) to supply to the Office, within the time and in the manner specified in the notice, any book, record, document or information specified in the notice;
- (b) to produce to the Office, or to a person specified in the notice acting on its behalf in accordance with the notice, any book, record, document or information specified in the notice within the time and in the manner specified in the notice;
- (c) if necessary, to reproduce, or assist in reproducing, in usable form, information recorded or stored in any book, record or document within the time and in the manner specified in the notice; or

(d) to appear before the Office, or a specified person, at a time and place specified in the notice to provide information, either orally or in writing, and produce any book, record or document specified in the notice.

(2) Information supplied in response to a notice under subsection (1)(d) shall, if given in writing, be signed in the manner specified in the notice.

(3) If a book, record or document is produced in response to a notice under subsection (1), the Office, or the person to whom the book, record or document is produced may examine and make copies of the book, record or document or extracts thereof.

(4) The Office may require a person to give orally or in writing, information on oath or affirmation and may administer an oath or affirmation at any place.

(5) A person who is required to provide information under this section may be represented by counsel and may claim any privilege to which the person is entitled.

(6) Where a person who is required to appear before the Office or give information fails or refuses to appear or provide information without lawful justification, the Office may make an application to the High Court to compel the person to do so.

Investigations by the Office

43. (1) Any officer in the service of the Office and authorised by the Regulator in writing (hereinafter referred to as an “authorised officer”) may, for the purpose of conducting an investigation into any alleged or suspected breach of this Act—

(a) examine and inquire into the affairs of a public body or person in respect of whom the investigation is being conducted;

(b) examine and make copies of, or remove from the premises, all such books, records and documents or other things relating to the subject of the investigation, whether or not they are in the possession or control of the person in respect of whom the investigation is ordered or of any other person; or

(c) subject to subsection (3), enter the premises of a public body or person during reasonable hours.

(2) Any book, record or document removed under subsection (1)(b) shall be returned to the public body or person from whom or to the premises from which it was removed, as soon as practicable.

(3) An authorized officer shall not enter the premises of a public body or person, unless the Office first obtains, on an ex parte application to a Judge of the High Court, an order authorizing him to enter the premises to conduct an investigation under subsection (1).

(4) An authorized officer shall provide the Office with a full and complete written report of the investigation including any transcript of statements and any material in his possession relating to the investigation.

44. After conducting an investigation under this Act, the Office shall without delay, in writing, inform the affected parties and the Minister, the Chief Secretary or public official having responsibility for that body, of the result of that investigation and make such recommendations as it considers necessary in respect of the matter which was investigated. ^{Outcome of investigation}

45. Where, after the conduct of an investigation, the Office is satisfied that there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that an offence has been committed, it shall make a report to the Director of Public Prosecutions who may take such action as he thinks appropriate. ^{Report to Director of Public Prosecutions}

Restrictions on withholding or concealing

46. No person shall withhold, conceal, destroy or refuse to produce any book, record or document required for the purpose of an examination or investigation under this Act.

No breach of duty

47. Notwithstanding any other written law, no person shall be regarded as having breached any duty to which he may be subject by reason of his communication in good faith to the Office, of any information or opinion on a matter which is relevant to any function of the Office under this Act, whether or not in response to a request made by the Office.

Notice of adverse report

48. The Office shall not make a report which concludes that a public body or a person has failed without reasonable justification to fulfil a duty or obligation under this Act unless reasonable notice has been given to the public body or person of the alleged failure and the public body or person has been allowed full opportunity to be heard either in person or by an Attorney-at-law.

CHALLENGE PROCEEDINGS

Right to challenge and appeal

49. (1) A supplier or contractor may bring challenge proceedings where it is alleged that—

- (a) a procuring entity made a decision or took action that is not in compliance with this Act; and
- (b) the supplier or contractor has suffered or is likely to suffer loss or injury because of the decision or action of the procuring entity.

(2) Challenge proceedings may be made by way of an application for review by the Office under section 50.

(3) Subject to section 52, all hearings under this Part shall take place in public.

50. (1) A supplier or contractor may apply to the Office for review of a decision or an action taken by a procuring entity in the procurement proceedings. Application for review by the Office

(2) Applications for review shall be submitted to the Office in writing within the following time periods:

- (a) applications for review of the terms of solicitation, pre-qualification or pre-selection or of decisions or actions taken by a procuring entity in pre-qualification or pre-selection proceedings, prior to the deadline for presenting submissions; or
- (b) applications for review of other decisions or actions taken by a procuring entity in the procurement proceedings—
 - (i) within the standstill period applied pursuant to section 35(2); or
 - (ii) where no standstill period has been applied, within seven working days after the publication of the notice of the decision or action that is taken in accordance with this Act.

(3) Within three days of receiving an application for review the Office shall publish a notice of the application in at least two newspapers in daily circulation in Trinidad and Tobago and on its website or any other electronic format.

(4) The Office may, within three days of the receipt of an application for review—

- (a) order the suspension of the procurement proceedings at any time before the entry into force of the procurement contract; or
- (b) order the suspension of the performance of a procurement contract or the operation of a framework agreement that has entered into force, if and for as long as it finds such a suspension necessary to protect the interests of the applicant.

(5) Promptly upon receipt of an application for review, the Office shall notify the procuring entity of the application and upon receipt of the notice, the procuring entity shall provide the Office with effective access to all documents in its possession relating to the procurement proceedings, in a manner appropriate to the circumstances.

(6) Within seven days of receiving an application for review the Office shall notify the procuring entity and all qualified suppliers and contractors of the application and its substance and of its decision on suspension pursuant to subsection (4).

(7) Where the Office decides to suspend the procurement proceedings, the performance of a procurement contract or the operation of a framework agreement, as the case may be, it shall specify the period of the suspension and where it decides not to suspend the procurement proceedings, it shall provide the reasons for its decision to the applicant and to the procuring entity.

(8) The Office may dismiss an application and shall lift any suspension applied, where it is of the opinion that the application is manifestly without merit or was not presented in compliance with the deadlines set out in subsection (2).

(9) The Office shall promptly notify the applicant, the procuring entity and all qualified suppliers and contractors in the procurement proceedings of the dismissal and the reasons therefor and that any suspension in force is lifted and such a dismissal constitutes a decision on the application.

(10) In making its decision with respect to an application that it has entertained, the Office may take one or more of the following actions, as appropriate:

- (a) prohibit a procuring entity from acting in a manner, or taking a decision or following a procedure, that is not in compliance with this Act;
- (b) require a procuring entity that has acted or proceeded in a manner that is not in compliance with the provisions of this Act to act, to take a decision or to proceed in a manner that is in compliance with the provisions of this Act;
- (c) confirm a decision of a procuring entity;
- (d) overturn the award of a procurement contract or a framework agreement that entered into force in a manner that is not in compliance with this Act and, if notice of the award of the procurement contract or the framework agreement has been published, direct that the notice of the overturning of the award be published;
- (e) direct that the procurement proceedings be terminated;
- (f) dismiss the application;
- (g) require the payment of compensation for any reasonable costs incurred by the supplier or contractor submitting an application as a result of an act or decision of, or procedure followed by, a procuring entity in the procurement proceedings that is not in compliance with the provisions of this Act, and for any loss or damages suffered, which shall be limited to the costs of the preparation of the submission or the costs relating to the application, or both; or
- (h) take such other action as is appropriate in the circumstances.

(11) The decision of the Office under subsection (10) shall be issued within twenty working days after receipt of the application and the Office shall immediately thereafter communicate its decision to the procuring entity, to the applicant, to all other participants in the application for review and to all other participants in the procurement proceedings and all persons shall comply with the decision and directive of the Office.

(12) The Office shall give all its decisions and actions taken in writing and shall, no more than twenty working days after the making of its decision, provide written reasons for the decision and action taken and they shall promptly be made part of the record of the procurement proceedings, together with the application received by the Office under this section.

participants in challenge
proceedings

51. (1) Any supplier or contractor participating in the procurement proceedings to which the application relates, as well as any public body whose interests are or could be affected by the application, shall have the right to participate in challenge proceedings under this Part.

(2) A supplier or contractor who is notified of an application for review and who fails to participate in proceedings relating to the application is barred from subsequently challenging the decisions or actions that are the subject matter of the application.

(3) The participants in challenge proceedings under this Part shall have the right to—

- (a) be present, represented and accompanied at all hearings during the proceedings;
- (b) be heard;
- (c) present evidence, including witnesses; and
- (d) seek access to the record of the challenge proceedings subject to section 52.

52. No public hearing for the purpose of challenge proceedings shall take place and no information shall be disclosed in challenge proceedings if it would—

Grounds for confidentiality in challenge proceedings

- (a) impair the protection of essential security interests of the State;
- (b) be contrary to law;
- (c) impede law enforcement;
- (d) prejudice the legitimate commercial interests of the suppliers or contractors; or
- (e) impede fair competition.

PART VI

DISPOSAL OF STORES AND EQUIPMENT OF A PUBLIC BODY

53. This Part applies with respect to the retention and disposal of stores and equipment of a public body that are unserviceable, obsolete or surplus.

Application

54. (1) A public body shall comply with—

Guidelines and handbooks in relation to retention and disposal of public property

- (a) such general guidelines in relation to the retention and disposal of stores and equipment of a public body as the Office may issue;
- (b) such special guidelines in relation to the retention and disposal of stores and equipment of a public body as the Office may approve for that public body; and
- (c) such handbooks in relation to the retention and disposal of stores and equipment of a public body as the Office may approve for that public body for the purposes of ensuring compliance with this Act and guidelines under paragraphs (a) and (b).

(2) Special guidelines under subsection (1)(b)—

- (a) shall be prepared by the public body and submitted to the Office for its approval; and

(b) may provide that general guidelines under subsection (1)(a) shall apply to a public body subject to such exemptions or amendments as are specified in the special guidelines.

(3) Handbooks under subsection (1)(c) shall be prepared by the public body and submitted to the Office for its approval.

Disposal Committee 55. A public body shall establish a disposal committee comprising not less than three officers for the purpose of recommending the best method of disposing of unserviceable, obsolete or surplus stores or equipment.

Procedure for disposal 56. (1) A public body shall refer all matters relating to the disposal of unserviceable, obsolete or surplus stores or equipment to its disposal committee.

(2) A public body shall comply with subsection (1) within a reasonable time after the stores or equipment become unserviceable, obsolete or surplus.

(3) Within fourteen days after receiving the recommendations of the disposal committee, the accounting officer shall give the committee a written notice as to whether the accounting officer accepts or rejects the recommendations of the committee and where the accounting officer rejects the recommendations, he shall include in the notice written reasons for the rejection.

(4) If the accounting officer accepts the recommendations of the disposal committee, the stores and equipment shall be disposed of in accordance with those recommendations.

(5) If the accounting officer rejects the recommendations of the disposal committee, he shall, after consultation with the Minister with responsibility for the public body, determine the manner in which the stores or equipment shall be disposed of and give the Office a copy of the notice under subsection (3) and inform the Office, in writing, of his decision under this subsection and his reasons therefor.

57. A public body shall not dispose of unserviceable, ^{Prohibition of disposal within public body} obsolete or surplus stores and equipment to an employee of the public body or a member of a board or committee of the public body except as expressly allowed under Regulations.

PART VII

MISCELLANEOUS

58. (1) For the purposes of this section—

Ineligibility list

“ineligibility list” means a list of suppliers or contractors who shall not participate in procurement proceedings;

“senior officer” means a managing director, chief executive officer, chief operating officer, deputy managing director, president, vice-president, secretary, treasurer, chief financial officer, financial controller, general manager, deputy general manager, corporate secretary, chief accountant, chief auditor, chief investment officer, chief compliance officer or chief risk officer; and

“supplier or contractor” includes any person who is a director, manager, senior officer, partner or other similar officer or any person who purports to act in such a capacity.

(2) The Office shall be responsible for preparing and maintaining an ineligibility list in accordance with this section.

(3) The Office may add a supplier or contractor to the ineligibility list where the supplier or contractor—

- (a) consistently fails to provide satisfactory performance;
- (b) is found to be indulging in corrupt or fraudulent practices; or
- (c) is convicted of an offence under this Act.

(4) The Minister, on the advice of the Office, may make Regulations to specify the mechanism and manner for adding a supplier or contractor to the ineligibility list, including the procedure for removing a supplier or contractor from an ineligibility list.

(5) A supplier or contractor shall be accorded an adequate opportunity to be heard and to make representation before he is added to the ineligibility list pursuant to this section.

(6) Where a supplier or contractor is added to the ineligibility list pursuant to this section—

- (a) any information relating to the supplier or contractor that is stored in the Procurement Depository shall be removed; and
- (b) the fact of the addition of the supplier or contractor to the ineligibility list shall be published and communicated to all public bodies.

Conduct influencing public officer

59. (1) For the purposes of this section, “associate”, when used to indicate a relationship with any person, means—

- (a) an entity of which that person beneficially owns or controls, directly or indirectly, either shares or securities currently convertible into shares, carrying more than twenty per cent of the voting rights;
- (b) a partner of that person acting on behalf of the partnership of which they are partners;

- (c) a trust or estate, in which that person has a substantial beneficial interest or in respect of which he serves as a trustee, legal representative or in a similar capacity;
- (d) a spouse or child of that person; or
- (e) a relative of that person if that relative has the same residence as that person.

(2) No person shall, with intent to gaining an advantage or concession for himself or any other person—

(a) offer—

- (i) any member or an associate of a member of a procuring entity;
- (ii) any consultant or an associate of any consultant providing services to a procuring entity; or
- (iii) any person or an associate of any person providing services to a procuring entity,

a gift of money or other valuable thing; or

(b) approach—

- (i) any member or an associate of a member of a procuring entity;
- (ii) any consultant or an associate of any consultant providing services to a procuring entity; or
- (iii) any person or an associate of any person providing services to a procuring entity, with respect to any matter that is before that procuring entity or that is expected to come before that procuring entity.

(3) No member, officer or employee of a public body shall accept a gratuity in any form, any offer of employment, service or any other thing of value as an inducement with respect to an act or decision of, or procedure followed by, the public body in connection with any procurement proceedings and a public body shall promptly reject a tender of any supplier or contractor who gives, agrees to give or offers directly or indirectly, any such inducement.

(4) A procuring entity shall not procure goods, works or services from a member of its staff or a person who has direct influence on the decision of a procuring entity.

(5) A procuring entity shall not include in a solicitation document any condition or specification which is likely to favour a particular supplier or contractor.

(6) A member of staff of a procuring entity or a person with direct influence on the decisions of a procuring entity shall declare any interest that he may have in any tender and shall, so far as possible, recuse himself from the proceedings.

(7) Where a procuring entity is satisfied that an inducement was offered, or any corrupt, fraudulent, collusive, coercive or obstructive practice was carried out in relation to a tender or proposal, the procuring entity shall reject or revoke the tender or proposal and report the matter to the Office for appropriate action.

(8) A supplier or contractor whose tender or proposal is rejected or revoked under subsection (7) shall be added to the ineligibility list, pursuant to section 58, for a period of ten years following the date of rejection or revocation of his tender or proposal.

(9) The Office shall notify, in writing, all public bodies of the disqualification of any supplier or contractor under this section.

(10) A person who contravenes this section commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine of one million dollars and five years' imprisonment.

60. (1) A person who—

Offence involving collusion

- (a) is involved in, or participates in bid rigging; or
- (b) directly or indirectly influences in any manner or attempts to influence in any manner any procurement proceedings in order to obtain an unfair advantage in the award of a procurement contract, commits an offence and is liable to a fine of five million dollars and imprisonment for ten years.

(2) A person who alters any procurement document with intent to influence the outcome of procurement proceedings commits an offence and is liable to a fine of two million dollars and imprisonment for seven years.

61. (1) Any person who contravenes a section referred to in the First Column of Schedule 1 commits an offence and is liable on conviction to the penalty specified in the Third Column of that Schedule.

Offence and penalty
Schedule 1

(2) For the purpose of this Act, a public body shall have a procurement officer who shall be responsible for public procurement and the disposal of public property for that body and shall notify the Office, in writing, of the name and designation of its procurement officer.

(3) A reference in this Act to the commission of an offence by a public body shall be construed as a reference to the commission of the offence by the procurement officer referred to in subsection (2) or an officer who purports to act in such capacity, if it is proved that—

- (a) the offence was committed with his direct consent or connivance; or
- (b) he, with knowledge, did not exercise reasonable diligence to prevent the commission of the offence.

(4) No prosecution of an offence under this Act may be instituted without the written consent of the Director of Public Prosecutions.

Immunity

62. No personal liability shall attach to any member of the Board, a committee or the staff of the Office or to any authorized officer for anything done, omitted or permitted in the course of the operations of the Office, unless it is shown that the act or omission was reckless or in bad faith.

Regulations

63. (1) The Minister may, on the recommendation of the Office, make regulations to give effect to the provisions of this Act, including regulations with respect to—

- (a) the conduct of challenge proceedings under Part V; and
- (b) the addition to, or removal from, an ineligibility list under section 58.

(2) Regulations made under this section may provide that the contravention of any regulation constitutes an offence and may prescribe penalties for any offence not exceeding a fine of one million dollars and imprisonment for five years.

(3) Regulations made under this section shall be subject to affirmative resolution of Parliament.

Repeal

64. (1) The Central Tenders Board Act is repealed save that any actions in respect of a procurement or disposal of public property which had commenced before the proclamation of this Act shall proceed as if the Central Tenders Board Act continues to have effect, and a reference to the Director of Contracts or the Central Tenders Board Act shall be construed as a reference to the Office or this Act, as the context requires.

(2) Section 28 of the Tobago House of Assembly Act is repealed.

Chap. 25:03

65. Where any procurement proceeding is in force upon the commencement of this Act, it shall be deemed to be in conformity with this Act and to the extent that the transaction would have been valid prior to the commencement of this Act, it shall be deemed to be so valid for the purposes of this Act.

Savings of certain procurement
proceedings

PART VIII TRANSITIONAL

66. (1) This section applies to an officer who, on the date of assent of this Act—

Options available to public officers

- (a) holds a permanent appointment to; or
- (b) holds a temporary appointment to, and has served at least two continuous years in, a public office specified in the Schedule 2.

Schedule 2

(2) A person to whom this section applies may, within three months of the coming into force of this Act, exercise one of the following options:

- (a) voluntary retire from the Public Service on terms and conditions agreed between him or his appropriate recognized association and the Chief Personnel Officer;
- (b) transfer to the Office with the approval of the Public Service Commission on terms and conditions no less favourable than those enjoyed by him in the Public Service; or
- (c) remain in the Public Service provided that an office commensurate with the office held by him in the Public Service prior to the date of the assent of this Act, is available.

Preservation and accrual of superannuation
benefits

67. The superannuation benefits which have accrued to a person who exercises the option under section 66(2)(b) shall be preserved at the date of his employment by the Office and such person shall continue to accrue superannuation benefits under the Pensions Act up to the date of the establishment of the pension fund plan on the basis of salary applicable to the office which he held immediately prior to his employment by the Office under section 66.

Payment of
superannuation
benefits by the Office prior to the establishment of a pension fund plan

68. (1) Where a member of staff of the Office who exercises the option referred to in section 66(2)(b) dies or retires prior to the establishment of the pension fund plan, and at the date of his death or retirement was in receipt of a salary higher than that referred to in section 67, the superannuation benefits payable to his estate or to him shall be based on the higher salary.

(2) The difference between the superannuation benefits payable on the basis of the higher salary and those payable under the Pensions Act on the basis of the salary referred to in section 66, shall be paid by the Office.

Payment of
superannuation
benefits by pension fund plan

69. (1) Where a member of staff of the Office who exercises the option referred to in section 66(2)(b) retires or dies and is a member of the pension fund plan, he shall be paid superannuation benefits by the pension fund plan at the amount which, when combined with the superannuation benefits payable under section 67 is the equivalent to the benefits based on his pensionable service in the Public Service combined with his service in the Office and calculated at the pensionable salary applicable to him on the date of his retirement or death.

(2) For the purposes of this section, “pensionable salary” has the meaning assigned to it by the pension fund plan.

Preservation of existing proceedings
and contracts

70. Nothing in this Act affects the validity of any proceedings commenced, or contract entered into, before the commencement of this Act, but if this Act would have been applicable to the proceedings or the contract if the proceedings had commenced, or the contract had been entered into after the commencement of this Act, the conduct of the proceedings and the performance of the contract shall, from the commencement of this Act, be subject to such directions as the Office may issue under section 14(1)(c) for the purposes of achieving the objectives of this Act.
