If, within the time limited in such direction or under any order of the Court, no notice forwarded by registered letter aforesaid shall be returned to him by Trinidad and Tobago Post, and if, within the time so limited, he shall not have received a caveat as hereinafter described forbidding him to do so, and in any case in which personal notice may be required as aforesaid, or in which any notice may have been given otherwise than by registered letter, if he shall have received proof to his satisfaction that such notice has been served or delivered, the Registrar General shall, pursuant to such direction of the Judge, bring the land described in such application under the provisions of this Act by making the proper entry in the Register Book, and, on proper application, issuing to the applicant or to such person as he or the person applying in his behalf may by any writing under his hand direct, the duplicate certificate of title for the same as hereinafter described.

Effect of caveat.

23. The Registrar General, upon receipt of any such caveat within the time limited as aforesaid, shall notify the same to the applicant, and shall suspend further action in the matter, and the lands in respect of which such caveat may have been lodged shall not be brought under the provisions of this Act until such caveat shall have been withdrawn, or shall have lapsed from any of the causes hereinafter provided, or until a decision shall have been obtained from the Court or Judge having jurisdiction in the matter.

Lapse of caveat.

24. After the expiration of one month from the receipt thereof, every such caveat shall be deemed to have lapsed, unless the person by whom or on whose behalf the same was lodged shall, within that time, have taken proceedings in any Court of competent jurisdiction to establish his title to the estate, interest, lien, or charge therein specified, and shall have given written notice thereof to the Registrar General, or shall have obtained from the Court an order or injunction restraining the Registrar General from bringing the land therein referred to under the provisions of this Act: Provided that if in such proceedings such person shall prove that he is in possession of such land, nothing in this Act contained shall enable the applicant to recover possession thereof, or to have such land brought under this Act, without previously establishing his own title thereto.

application.

25. Any applicant may withdraw his application at any time prior to the issuing of the certificate of title, and the Registrar General shall in such case, upon request in writing signed by such applicant, return to him or to the person, if any, appearing from such application to be entitled to the possession of such instruments and copies of instruments, the abstract and all instruments and copies of instruments of title deposited by such applicant for the purpose of supporting his application: Provided that in such case, if a caveator shall have been put to expense, without sufficient cause, by reason of such application, he shall be entitled to receive from the applicant such compensation as a Judge on a summons in Chambers, shall deem just and order.

26. Upon issuing a certificate of title bringing land under the provisions of this Act, the Registrar General shall stamp as cancelled every instrument of title deposited by the applicant when making his application: Provided that if any such instrument shall relate to or include any property, whether personal or real, other than the land included in such certificate of title, then the Registrar General shall endorse thereon a memorandum cancelling the same in so far only as relates to the land included in such certificate of title, and shall return such instrument to such applicant; otherwise he shall retain the same in his office, and no person shall be entitled to the production of such instrument so stamped, except upon the written order of the applicant, or of some person claiming through or under him, or upon the order of a Judge.

Cancellation of instruments of title.

27. In case an applicant, or the person to whom an applicant may have directed a certificate of title to be issued, shall have died or become an insane person in the interval between the date of his application and the date appointed for the certificate of title to issue in accordance with the provisions hereinbefore contained, the certificate of title shall, unless a new order shall have been made by a Judge in the matter, be issued in the name of the applicant, or in the name of the person to whom he may have directed it to be issued, as the case may require, and such land shall devolve in like manner as if the certificate of title had been issued prior to the death or insanity of such applicant or person so named by him.

29. Upon the first bringing of land under the provisions of this Act, whether by the alienation thereof from the State, or consequent upon the application of the applicant as hereinbefore provided, and also upon the registration of the title to an estate of freehold in possession in land under the provisions of this Act derived through the Will or intestacy of a previous proprietor or under any settlement, there shall be paid to the Registrar General the sum specified in the Fourth Schedule, and in case of land brought under the provisions of this Act by alienation from the State, the price paid for such land shall be deemed and taken to be the value thereof for the purpose of levying such sum, and in all other cases as aforesaid such value shall be ascertained by a statutory declaration of the applicant or person deriving title to such land by transmission: Provided that if the Registrar General shall not be satisfied as to the correctness of the value so declared, it shall be lawful for him to require such applicant, or person deriving title to such land, to produce a certificate of such values under the hand of a valuer approved by the Registrar General, which certificate shall be received as conclusive evidence of such value for the purpose aforesaid.

Registration of grants and certificates of title and other documents.

38. Every grant and certificate of title shall be deemed and taken to be registered under the provisions and for the purposes of this Act so soon as the same shall have been marked by the Registrar General with the page and volume as embodied in the Register

Book, and every memorandum of transfer or other instrument purporting to transfer or in any way to affect land under the provisions of this Act shall be deemed to be so registered so soon as a memorial thereof as hereinafter described shall have been entered in the Register Book upon the leaf constituted by the grant or certificate of title of such land, and the person named in any grant, certificate of title, or other instrument so registered as the proprietor of or having any estate or interest shall be deemed to be the proprietor thereof.

39. No instrument of transfer or mortgage, or whereby any encumbrance is created or mortgage is transferred, discharged, or released, and no caveat, shall be registered by the Registrar General under the provisions of this Act unless it bears the signature of an Attorney-at-law as having prepared such instrument: Provided that the provisions of this section shall not apply to an instrument or caveat the execution whereof took place wholly out of Trinidad and Tobago.

40. Every instrument presented for registration shall be registered in the order of time in which the same is produced for that purpose; and instruments registered in respect to or affecting the same estate or interest shall, notwithstanding any express, implied, or constructive notice, be entitled in priority the one over the other according to the date of registration and not according to the date of each instrument itself, and the Registrar General, upon registration thereof, shall on demand deliver the duplicate grant or certificate of title with the necessary endorsements thereon to the person entitled thereto; and so soon as registered, every instrument drawn in any of the several forms provided in the First Schedule or in any form which for the same purpose may be authorised in conformity with the provisions of this Act, shall for the purposes of this Act be deemed and taken to be embodied in the Register Book as part thereof.

Effect of registration of instruments.

44. No instrument, until registered in manner herein provided, shall be effectual to pass any estate or interest in any land under the provisions of this Act or to render such land liable to any mortgage charge or encumbrance; but upon the registration of any instrument in manner herein provided, the estate or interest specified in such instrument shall pass or, as the case may be, the land shall become liable, in manner and subject to the covenants, conditions, and contingencies set forth and specified in such instrument or by this Act declared to be implied in instruments of a like nature, and should two or more instruments executed by the same proprietor, and purporting to transfer or encumber the same estate or interest in any land, be at the same time presented to the Registrar General for registration and endorsement, he may either register and endorse that instrument which is presented by the person producing the grant or certificate of title, or may refuse to register either instrument until an order determining the relative rights of the several claimants shall have been made by the Court or a Judge.

45. Notwithstanding the existence in any other person of any estate or interest, whether derived by grant from the State or otherwise, which but for this Act might be held to be paramount or to have priority, the proprietor of land or of any estate or interest in land under the provisions of this Act shall, except in case of fraud, hold the same subject to such mortgages, encumbrances, estates, or interests as may be notified on the leaf of the Register Book constituted by the grant or certificate of title of such land; but absolutely free from all other encumbrances, liens, estates, or interests whatsoever, except the estate or interest of a proprietor claiming the same land under a prior grant or certificate of title registered under the provisions of this Act, and any rights subsisting under any adverse possession of such land; and also, when the possession is not adverse, the rights of any tenant of such land holding under a tenancy for any term not exceeding three years, and except as regards the omission or misdescription of any right of way or other easement created in or existing upon such land, and except so far as regards any portion of land that may, by wrong description of parcels or of boundaries, be included in the grant, certificate of title, lease, or other instrument evidencing the title of such proprietor, not being a purchaser or mortgagee thereof for value, or deriving title from or through a purchaser or mortgagee thereof for value.

54. A person claiming any estate or interest in the land in respect of which any such application is made may before the granting thereof intervene by entering an appearance to the proceedings and filing an affidavit setting out the particulars of his claim.

Power to make vesting order.

55. Subject as aforesaid, after the expiration of the time appointed, and after giving to the applicant and all other parties to the proceedings an opportunity of being heard, a Judge, if satisfied that the applicant has acquired a title by possession to the land, may make an order vesting the land in the applicant (or person entitled thereto) for an estate in fee simple, or other estate acquired by the applicant, free from all encumbrances appearing by the Register Book to affect the existing title which have been determined or extinguished by such possession and free from any easement notified as an encumbrance which has been proved to the satisfaction of the Judge to have been abandoned or extinguished.

A bond furnished under this section shall provide for the payment to the Registrar General for the account of the Assurance Fund of such an amount, not exceeding the sum certified by the Judge in manner aforesaid, as may, within a period to be fixed by the Judge, have to be paid out of the Assurance Fund for damages and costs by reason of the granting of the application. Easement or other encumbrance extinguished to be cancelled.

60. (1) If a vesting order or an order for the removal of an easement or other encumbrance is made by a Judge under this Part of this Act and affects the right, estate or interest of the proprietor of land included in any grant or certificate of title in respect of any registered easement or other encumbrance appearing thereon the Judge shall direct the Registrar General to cancel such easement or other encumbrance to the extent to which it has been extinguished upon the original of such grant or certificate of title and also upon the duplicate grant or certificate of title when brought to him for that purpose or when the same is produced for the purpose of any dealing with the land comprised therein.

TRANSFERS AND OTHER DEALINGS

62. When land under the provisions of this Act, or any estate or interest in such land, is intended to be granted or transferred, or any right of way or other easement is intended to be created or transferred, the proprietor may execute a memorandum (hereinafter called a memorandum of transfer) in Form F or Form G of the First Schedule, which memorandum shall, for description of the land intended to be dealt with, refer to the grant or certificate of title of such land, or shall give such description as may be sufficient to identify the same, and shall contain an accurate statement of the estate, interest, or easement intended to be granted, transferred, or created, and a note of all leases, mortgages, and other encumbrances to which the same may be subject.

Memorandum of transfer.

Forms F and G.
First Schedule.

63. A memorial of such memorandum of transfer shall, unless the grant or certificate of title thereto in the Register Book be wholly cancelled, be endorsed on such grant or certificate of title.

Endorsement.

64. A memorial of any transfer or lease creating any easement over or upon or affecting any land under the provisions of this Act may be entered upon the leaf of the Register Book constituted by the grant or certificate of title of such land in addition to any other entry concerning such instrument required by this Act.

Memorial of easement.

65. If the memorandum of transfer purports to transfer an estate of freehold in the whole or in part of the land mentioned in any grant or certificate of title or any easement thereover, the transferor shall deliver up the grant or certificate of title of the said land, and the Registrar General shall, after registering the transfer, enter on such grant or certificate of title a memorandum cancelling the same either wholly or partially according as the memorandum of transfer purports to transfer the whole or part only of the land mentioned in such grant or certificate of title, or the whole or part only of the estate of the transferor therein, referring to such easement, and setting forth the particulars of the transfer.

Cancellation of exhausted certificate of title.

Disposal of cancelled certificate.

66. Any wholly cancelled grant or certificate of title shall be retained by the Registrar General. Any partially cancelled grant or certificate of title shall be returned endorsed as aforesaid to the transferor, unless such transferor shall require a new certificate of title for the untransferred portion; and the Registrar General shall, subject to the provisions hereinafter contained, make out to the transferee a certificate of title to the land mentioned in such transfer, as hereinafter mentioned.

Transfer of leaseholds.

67. On a transfer of leasehold property for the whole of the interest of the transferor in the whole of the land comprised in the grant or certificate of title relating thereto, such grant or certificate of title, and the corresponding entry in the Register Book, shall not be cancelled, but shall be endorsed with a memorial of such transfer, and shall be delivered to the transferee. If a part only of the transferor's interest in such land, or his interest in a part only of such land, be transferred, or if an easement thereon be created such dealings shall be evidenced by memorials endorsed on the proper certificates of title, so far as possible in the manner directed in the case of freehold property, and the Registrar General shall have all the powers necessary for or incidental to the purpose.

Transfer by endorsement.

68. If a transfer purports to transfer the whole of the land mentioned in any grant or certificate of title, and for the whole of the transferor's estate or interest therein, the Registrar General may, except when a tenancy in common is thereby created or determined, instead of cancelling such grant or certificate of title as hereinbefore provided, enter in the Register Book and on the grant or certificate of title a memorandum of such transfer, and deliver the duplicate grant or certificate of title to the transferee; and every grant or certificate of title with such memorandum shall be as effectual for the purpose of evidencing title and for all other purposes as if the old grant or certificate of title had been cancelled and a new certificate of title had been issued to the transferee in his own name, and such process in lieu of cancellation may be repeated upon every transfer of the whole of the land.

Certificate of title on transfer.

69. The Registrar General, upon cancelling any grant or certificate of title either wholly or partially pursuant to any transfer, shall make out to the transferee a certificate of title to the land mentioned in such memorandum of transfer, and every such certificate of title shall refer to the original grant of such land, and to the memorandum or other instrument of transfer, and the Registrar General shall retain every such memorandum of transfer and cancelled or partially cancelled grant or certificate of title, and whenever so required by the proprietor of an unsold portion or residue of land included in any such partially cancelled grant or certificate of title, or by a registered transferee of such portion or of any part thereof, shall, on payment of the prescribed fee, make out to such proprietor or transferee a certificate of title of such portion or for any part thereof of which he is the proprietor or transferee.

70. In every instrument transferring land under the provisions of this Act subject to mortgage or encumbrance there shall be implied the following covenant by the transferee with the transferor; that is to say, that such transferee will pay the interest or annuity or rent charge secured by such mortgage or encumbrance after the rate and at the times specified in the instrument creating the same, and will indemnify and keep harmless the transferor from and against the principal sum secured by such instrument, and from and against all liability in respect of any of the covenants therein contained or by this Act implied on the part of the transferor.

109. (1) Subject to the powers, rights, duties, and liabilities hereinafter mentioned, the personal representatives of a deceased person shall hold the land as trustees for the persons by law beneficially entitled thereto, and those persons shall have the same power of requiring a transfer thereof as they have of requiring a transfer of personal estate.

(2) All enactments and rules of law relating to the effect of Probate or Letters of Administration as respects chattels real, and as respects the dealings with chattels real before Probate or Administration, and as respects the costs of administration and other matters in relation to the administration of personal estate, and the powers, rights, duties, and liabilities of personal representatives in respect of personal estate, shall apply to land under this Act, so far as the same are applicable, as if that land were a chattel real vesting in them or him, save that it shall not be lawful for some or only one of several joint personal representatives, without the authority of the Court or a Judge, to transfer, lease, mortgage, or encumber such land.

Charges created by Will to be registered.

110. No land under this Act shall be liable to any charge created by the Will of a deceased proprietor until a memorandum of such charge shall have been made by the Registrar General in the Register Book. No such memorandum shall be entered in the Register Book until application has been made on that behalf, and the prescribed fee paid, and such evidence as the Registrar General may require has been furnished that the land would, if not under the Act, have been bound by such charge.

Order of administration of assets.

111. Nothing in this Act contained shall alter or affect the order in which real and personal assets respectively are now applicable in or towards the payment of funeral and testamentary expenses, debts, or legacies.

Assent to devise.

112. At any time after the death of the proprietor of any land under this Act, his personal representatives may assent to any devise contained in his Will, or may transfer the land to any person entitled thereto as next of kin, devisee, or otherwise, and may make the assent or transfer either subject to a charge for the payment of any money which the personal representatives are liable to pay, or without any such charge; and on such assent or transfer, subject to a charge for all moneys, if any, which the personal representatives are liable to pay, all liabilities of the personal representatives in respect of the land shall cease, except as to any acts done or contracts entered into by them before such assent or transfer.

113. At any time after the expiration of one year from the death of the proprietor of any land under this Act, if his personal representatives have failed on the request of the person entitled to the land to transfer the land to that person, the Judge may, if he thinks fit, on the application of that person, and after notice to the personal representatives, order that the person so entitled be registered as proprietor of the land, either solely or jointly with the personal representatives, and that the duplicate grant or certificate of title be delivered up for cancellation or for the proper endorsement.

Order for registration of beneficiary.

114. Where the personal representatives of a deceased person are registered as proprietors of land on his death, a fee shall not be chargeable by the Registrar General on any transfer of the land by them unless the transfer is for valuable consideration.

Fee on transfer by personal representatives.

115. The production of an assent by the personal representatives in Form P of the First Schedule, duly executed and attested in manner prescribed by this Act, shall authorise the Registrar General to register the person named in the assent as proprietor of the land. Such assent shall be retained by the Registrar General and registered: Provided that if such personal representatives are not registered as proprietors of the land intended to be disposed of, the Registrar General may refuse to register such persons as so entitled under the Will of the deceased proprietor, until Probate or Letters of Administration to his estate or an office copy thereof, and any other evidence which he may require, have been supplied.

proprietors of such mortgage, encumbrance or lease on payment of the prescribed fee and on furnishing the Registrar General with a request in writing stating the registered number of the probate of the Will or Letters of Administration of the estate of such deceased proprietor together with such further evidence as the Registrar General may require.

Estate and succession duties.

117. Nothing in this Act shall exempt land from estate and succession duties.

PART XII

TRUSTS

No entry of trusts in Register Book.

118. The Registrar General shall not make any entry in the Register Book of any notice of trusts, whether expressed, implied, or constructive, but trusts may be declared by any instrument or Deed, which instrument or Deed may include as well land under the provisions of this Act as land which is not under the provisions thereof: Provided that the description of the several parcels of land contained in such instrument or Deed shall sufficiently distinguish the land which is under the provisions of this Act from the land which is not under the provisions thereof; and such instrument may be registered in the Register of Deeds in accordance with the laws relating thereto, but such registration shall not be deemed to affect any purchaser from a proprietor with notice of any trust affecting land under this Act.

Proceedings by beneficiary for registration.

119. If the proprietor of any land be a trustee, and the person beneficially entitled thereto would, if the land were not under this Act, be entitled to require that the legal estate be vested in him, such beneficiary may take out a summons or commence an action to compel the proprietor to transfer the said land, and on the hearing of such summons or action an order may be made directing the Registrar General, on payment of the proper fee, to register such beneficiary as proprietor, and to issue to him a certificate of title.

“No survivorship”.

120. Upon the transfer of any land, estate, or interest under the provisions of this Act to two or more persons as joint proprietors, it shall be lawful for the transferor to insert in the memorandum of transfer or other instrument the words “no survivorship,” and the Registrar General shall in such case include such words in the memorial of such instrument to be entered by him in the Register Book as hereinbefore directed, and shall also enter the said words upon any certificate of title issued to such joint proprietors pursuant to such memorandum of transfer; and any two or more persons registered as joint proprietors of any land, estate, or interest under the provisions of this Act, may, by writing under their hand authorise the Registrar General to enter the words “no survivorship” upon the grant or certificate of title, and also upon the duplicate grant or certificate of title, and after such entry has been made and signed by the Registrar General, in either such case as aforesaid, it shall not be lawful for any less number of joint proprietors than the number then registered to transfer or otherwise deal with the said land, estate, or interest without the direction of the Court or a Judge.

121. Before making any such order as aforesaid, the Court or a Judge shall, if it seem requisite, cause notice of intention to do so to be advertised three times at least in one daily newspaper published in Trinidad and Tobago, and shall appoint a period of time within which it shall be lawful for any person interested to show cause why such order should not be issued, and thereupon it shall be lawful for the said Court or Judge in such order to give directions for the transfer of such land, estate, or interest to any new proprietor or proprietors solely or jointly with or in the place of any existing proprietor, or to make such order in the premises as the Court or Judge thinks just for the protection of the persons beneficially interested in such land, estate, or interest, or in the proceeds thereof, and upon such order being deposited with the Registrar General he shall make such entries and perform such acts in accordance with the provisions of this Act as may be necessary for the purpose of giving effect to such order.

Order for transfer “where no survivorship”.

122. Whenever the Court or a Judge shall, under any power in that behalf conferred by any Act for the time being in force, make any order respecting land under the provisions of this Act which would, if such land had not been subject to such provisions, have had the effect of vesting the legal estate or some interest in such land in any person without any conveyance or transfer, the Registrar General may, on the delivery of an office copy of such order, and payment of the prescribed fees, duly register such order, and note the same on the duplicate grant or certificate of title when produced, and shall register such person as the proprietor of such land for the proper estate, or entitled to such interest therein, without the production of any instrument of transfer: Provided that, until such order has been registered in the Register Book, it shall have no effect as against a purchaser or mortgagee from the proprietor.

Trustee must lend his name to beneficiary.

123. Whenever a proprietor entitled to or interested in land as a trustee would be entitled to bring or defend any action in his own name for recovering the possession of or enforcing a security on land under the provisions of this Act, such person shall be bound to allow his name to be used as a plaintiff or defendant in such action by any beneficiary or other person claiming an estate or interest in the said land or security who would, if the said land had not been subject to the provisions of this Act, have been entitled to bring such action either in his own name or that of the trustee: Provided that the person entitled or interested as such trustee shall in every such case be entitled to be indemnified in like manner as a trustee would, if this Act had not been passed, have been entitled to be indemnified in a similar case of his name being used in any such action or proceeding by his cestui que trust.

Change in trustees of Friendly Societies.

124. When proprietors of land are trustees of a friendly society the Registrar General shall on an application by their successors in title endorse the applicants as proprietors on production of a certificate from the Registrar of Friendly Societies that the land in question is the property of the friendly society and that the applicants are the trustees of that society.

PART XIII

CAVEATS AGAINST DEALINGS WITH LAND UNDER THE ACT

Caveats by beneficiaries
and others.

125. Any beneficiary or other person claiming any estate or interest in land under the provisions of this Act or in any lease, mortgage, encumbrance, or settlement under any unregistered instrument or by devolution of law or otherwise, or the Registrar

General, may lodge a caveat with the Registrar General in Form Q of the First Schedule or as near thereto as circumstances permit, forbidding the registration of any person as transferee or proprietor of and of any instrument affecting such estate or interest, either absolutely or until after notice of the intended registration or dealing is given to the caveator, or unless such instrument is expressed to be subject to the claim of the caveator as is required in such caveat, or unless the caveator consent in writing thereto. Every such caveat shall state the name and address of the person by whom or on whose behalf the same is lodged, and shall contain a sufficient description to identify the land and the estate or interest therein claimed by the caveator or by the person on whose behalf the caveat is lodged, and, except in case of caveats lodged by order of the Court, or by the Registrar General as hereinbefore provided, shall be signed by the caveator or by his Attorney-at-law or duly registered attorney. The person lodging such caveat shall, if required by the Registrar General, support the same by a statutory declaration, stating the nature of the title under which the claim is made. Every notice relating to such caveat or to any proceedings in respect thereof, if served at the address mentioned in such caveat or at the address of the Attorney-at-law or duly registered attorney who may have signed the same, shall be deemed to be duly served and every such caveat may be withdrawn by the caveator or his Attorney-at-law or duly registered attorney.

Form Q.
First Schedule.

126. Upon the receipt of such caveat the Registrar General shall notify the same to the person against whose application to be registered as proprietor, or, as the case may be, to the proprietor against whose title to deal with the estate or interest such caveat has been lodged; and such applicant or proprietor or any person claiming under any transfer or other instrument signed by the proprietor may, if he thinks fit, take out a summons to compel the caveator or the person on whose behalf such caveat has been lodged to show cause why such caveat should not be removed; and it shall be lawful for the Court or Judge to make such order either ex parte or otherwise, as to the Court or Judge may seem fit; and, except in the case of a caveat lodged by or on behalf of a beneficiary claiming under any Will or settlement or by the Registrar General for the protection of incapable persons or the prevention of fraud, every such caveat lodged against a proprietor shall, unless an order to the contrary shall have been made by the Court or a Judge, be deemed to have lapsed upon the expiration of fourteen days after notice given to the caveator that such proprietor has applied for the registration of a transfer or other dealing with such land, estate or interest; but if before the expiration of such period of fourteen days or such further period as is specified in any order made under this section the caveator or his Attorney-at-law or duly registered attorney appears before the Court or a Judge and gives such undertaking or security or lodges such sum in Court as the Court or a Judge considers sufficient to indemnify every person against any damage that may be sustained by reason of any disposition of the proprietor being delayed, then and in such case the Court or a Judge may direct the Registrar General to delay registering any dealing with the land, lease, mortgage or encumbrance for a further period to be specified in such order, or may make such order, and in either case such order as to costs, as is just.

No dealings while caveat in force.

127. So long as any caveat remains in force prohibiting any registration or dealing, the Registrar General shall not, except in accordance with some provision of such caveat or with the consent in writing of the caveator or his Attorney-at-law or duly registered attorney, enter in the Register Book any change in the proprietorship of or any transfer or other instrument purporting to transfer or otherwise deal with or affect the estate or interest in respect of which such caveat is lodged.

Frivolous caveat.

128. Any person lodging any caveat with the Registrar General without reasonable cause shall be liable to make to any person who may have sustained damage thereby such compensation as may be just, and such compensation shall be recoverable in an action at law by the person who has sustained damage from the person who lodged the caveat.

A caveat on behalf of a beneficiary under a Will or settlement need not be removed to admit registration of a dealing authorised by the Will or settlement.

129. Where a caveat has been lodged by or on behalf of a beneficiary claiming under a Will or settlement and a change in the proprietorship of or a transfer or other dealing with or affecting the land, estate or interest in respect of which the caveat was lodged is presented for registration, the same may notwithstanding the provisions of section 127 be registered without the caveat being withdrawn and without determining the operation of the caveat, provided the Registrar General is of opinion that such change of proprietorship or such transfer or other dealing is authorised by the Will or settlement and the caveator either consents in writing to the registration or does not lodge a written protest against such registration within fourteen days after being served with notice as such caveator.

PART XIV

INSTRUMENTS—THEIR EXECUTION,

133. The Registrar General may refuse to register any instrument executed by a person signing his name in foreign characters, or by making his mark, unless the same bears upon it a certificate by an Attorney-at-law, or by a Justice, or by a duly licensed interpreter, that he has explained or caused to be explained the true purport of such instrument to such person so signing as aforesaid, and that he is satisfied that such person understands the same.

Consolidation and sub-division of certificates of title.

134. (1) Upon the application of any proprietor of land held under separate grants or certificates of title, or under one grant or certificate of title, and upon the delivering up of such grant or grants, certificate or certificates of title, it shall be lawful for the Registrar General to issue to such proprietor a single certificate of title for the whole of such land, or several certificates of title, each containing a portion of such land, in accordance with such application, and as far as the same may be done consistently with any regulations for the time being in force respecting the parcels of land that may be included in one certificate of title; and upon issuing any such certificate of title the Registrar General shall cancel the grant or previous certificate of title of such land so delivered up, and shall endorse thereon a memorandum setting forth the occasion of such cancellation, and referring to the certificate of title so issued.

(2) It shall be lawful for the Registrar General to issue to the proprietor of any mines, minerals or quarries in or underlying land (hereinafter in this section called “surface land”) held under the provisions of this Act a certificate of title of such mines, minerals or quarries. In issuing such certificate of title it shall be lawful for the Registrar General to dispense with the production of the duplicate grant or certificate of title of the surface land. A memorandum of the issue of such certificate of title shall be endorsed on the grant or certificate of title of the surface land and on the duplicate grant or certificate of title of the same; and if the production of the duplicate has been dispensed with such memorandum shall be endorsed on such duplicate when it shall next be produced to the Registrar General.

Certificate of title of mines, minerals and quarries.

(3) Whenever any estate or interest in any mines, minerals or quarries in or underlying any land held under the provisions of this Act is transferred apart from the surface land the Registrar General may refuse to register such transfer except application be made to him for the issue of a separate certificate of title in respect of such estate or interest in such mines, minerals or quarries as aforesaid. A memorandum of the issue of such certificate of title shall be endorsed on the grant or certificate of title of the surface land and on the duplicate grant or certificate of title of the same.

New certificate of title on transfer of mines, minerals and quarries.

(4) It shall be lawful for the Registrar General to issue a certificate of title to the proprietor of any lease under which there shall be a term of not less than twenty-one years unexpired, and such certificate of title shall refer to the reversion expectant upon the term of such lease. The Registrar General shall from time to time enter on such certificate of title memorials of all mortgages, sub-leases, dealings or other interests affecting or relating to the leasehold estate or interest created by such lease.

Certificate of title to leaseholds.

The Registrar General may dispense with duplicate grants, etc., in certain cases.

135. The Registrar General may dispense with the production of any duplicate grant, certificate of title or instrument for the purpose of entering thereon any memorial by this Act required. In every such case upon the registration of the dealing the Registrar General shall notify in the memorial in the Register Book that no entry of such memorial has been made on the duplicate and such dealing shall thereupon be as valid and effectual as if such memorial had been entered thereon. The Registrar General may dispense with the production of the duplicate grant or certificate of title required to be delivered up prior to the registration of a devisee or other person on the transmission of an estate of freehold: Provided always that before registering such dealing or transmission the Registrar General shall require proof by statutory declaration that the duplicate is not deposited or held as security or lien, and shall give at least fourteen days' notice of his intention to register such dealing in at least one daily newspaper published in Trinidad and Tobago.

136. In the event of the duplicate grant or certificate of title being lost or destroyed, application may be made to the Registrar General for the issue of a new certificate of title, and the Registrar General may, on proof by statutory declaration to his satisfaction of the loss or destruction of the duplicate grant or certificate of title, cancel the grant or certificate of title for the land then comprised in the grant or certificate of title the duplicate whereof has been lost or destroyed and issue a new certificate of title for such land: Provided that the Registrar General before issuing such new certificate of title shall give at least fourteen days' notice of his intention so to do in at least one daily newspaper published in Trinidad and Tobago.

Variation of instruments.

Form S.
First Schedule.

137. The provisions of any transfer, lease, sub-lease, mortgage, sub-mortgage or encumbrance registered under this Act may be varied by a memorandum of variation in Form S of the First Schedule or in such other form as may be approved by the Registrar General duly executed by the necessary parties and registered under this Act.

Correction of errors.

138. In case it shall appear to the satisfaction of the Registrar General that any grant, certificate of title or other instrument has been issued in error, or contains any misdescription of land or of boundaries made in error, or that any entry or endorsement has been made in error, on any grant, certificate of title, or other instrument, or that any such grant, certificate of title, instrument, entry, or endorsement has been fraudulently or wrongfully obtained, or that any such grant, certificate of title, or instrument is fraudulently or wrongfully retained, he may require the person to whom such grant, certificate of title, or instrument has been so issued, or by whom it has been so obtained or is retained, to deliver up the same for the purpose of being cancelled or corrected as the case may require.

139. In any case in which the Registrar General is entitled to require the delivery up to him of any instrument for cancellation, correction, or endorsement, he or any person interested may take out a summons against the party alleged to have been in possession of such instrument to show cause why such instrument should not be delivered up for such purpose, and if such person when served with such summons shall not appear at the time therein appointed, it shall be lawful for the Judge to issue a warrant authorising and directing that person so summoned to be apprehended and brought before a Judge for examination.

Procedure to compel delivery up of instruments.

140. Upon the appearance before the Court or Judge of any person summoned or brought up by virtue of a warrant as aforesaid, it shall be lawful to examine such person upon oath, and, in case the same shall seem proper, to order such person to deliver up such instrument as aforesaid, and, upon refusal or neglect by such person to deliver up the same pursuant to such order, to commit such person to prison and, in such case or in case such person shall have absconded, so that summons cannot be served upon him as hereinbefore directed, the Registrar General shall, if the circumstances of the case require it, issue to the proprietor of the land such certificate of title or other instrument as is herein provided to be issued in the case of any grant or certificate of title being lost, mislaid, or destroyed, and shall enter in the Register Book notice of the issuing of the certificate of title or other instrument, and the circumstances under which the same was issued, and such other particulars as he may deem necessary.

deliver up

PART XV

INDEFEASIBILITY OF TITLE AND REMEDIES OF PERSONS INJURED

Transfers and other dealings good notwithstanding notice of trust or unregistered interest.

141. Except in the case of fraud, no person contracting or dealing with or taking or proposing to take a transfer from the proprietor of any estate or interest shall be required or in any manner concerned to enquire or ascertain the circumstances under, or the consideration for which, such proprietor or any previous proprietor of the estate or interest in question is or was registered, or to see to the application of the purchase money or of any part thereof, or shall be affected by notice, direct or constructive, of any trust or unregistered interest, any rule of law or equity to the contrary notwithstanding, and the knowledge that any such trust or unregistered interest is in existence shall not of itself be imputed as fraud.

Certificate of title conclusive as to matters therein stated.

142. Any grant or certificate of title registered under the provisions of this Act, so long and so far as it remains uncanceled in the Register Book, and so far as no discrepancy is shown to exist between it and the duplicate thereof, shall be conclusive evidence of the matters thereon stated, or thereon endorsed by the Registrar General, except as in this Act provided.

No action against proprietor for ejectment or recovery of land.

143. No action of ejectment or other action for the recovery of any land shall lie or be sustained against the person registered as proprietor thereof under the provisions of this Act, except in any of the following cases:

- (a) the case of a mortgagee or an annuitant or a lessor as against a mortgagor or a grantor or a lessee in default;
- (b) the case of a person deprived of any land by fraud, as against the person registered as proprietor of such land through fraud; or as against a person deriving, otherwise than as a transferee bona fide for value, from or through a person so registered through fraud;
- (c) the case of a person deprived of or claiming any land included in any grant or certificate of title of other land by misdescription of such other land or of its boundaries, as against the proprietor of such other land not being a transferee thereof bona fide for value;

- (d) the case of a proprietor claiming under the instrument of title prior in date of registration under the provisions of this Act, where two or more grants or two or more certificates of title, or a grant and a certificate of title, may be registered under the provisions of this Act in respect of the same land:

And in any case other than as aforesaid, the production of the original grant, certificate of title, or other instrument shall be held, both at law and in equity, to be an absolute bar and estoppel to any such action against the person named in such instrument as the proprietor of the land therein described, any rule of law or equity to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided that nothing herein contained shall prevent a plaintiff from obtaining in an action judgment for specific performance of a contract for the sale or lease of land under this Act, nor prevent a beneficiary entitled to call for a transfer from a trustee from obtaining a decree for such transfer or such vesting order as hereinbefore mentioned.

144. Whenever an action shall be brought against a proprietor or person holding a grant or certificate of title in either of the two cases excepted in the last preceding section at paragraphs (c) and (d), if the defendant or any person through whom he claims shall have made improvements on the land since obtaining a grant or certificate of title thereto, then, whether he admit or deny the plaintiff's title, he may plead the fact of such improvements being made, and may set a value thereon and also on the land as distinct therefrom, and give evidence thereof at the trial, and if judgment be given for the plaintiff, or his title be admitted, the Court or a Judge may, if he thinks the justice of the case so requires, assess the value of the alleged improvements, and may also separately assess the value which the land would have possessed if the said improvements had not been made. And no writ of possession shall issue in such case unless the plaintiff shall first pay into Court, for improvements.

the use of the defendant, the value of the improvements so assessed, deducting only the costs, if any, to which he shall be entitled in the action; and if the plaintiff shall fail to make such payment within three months after judgment, the amount to which he is entitled shall thereafter be limited to the sum separately assessed as the value of the land together with costs of suit; and the defendant shall, upon satisfaction thereof, be entitled to retain the land and improvements, and in either case the Registrar General shall be entitled, under the power hereinbefore conferred, to require to be delivered up any grant or certificate of title which shall be held by the party whose right to the land shall have determined: Provided that in every case in which the defendant shall be entitled to indemnity from the Assurance Fund, the Registrar General shall be made a co-defendant, and may defend the action either severally or jointly or may leave the defence wholly to his co-defendant, as he shall see fit; and in no case shall the Assurance Fund be liable to the principal defendant for any greater damages than he shall actually sustain as the result of such action, after using all reasonable diligence in the defence thereof.

Damages for ejectment.

145. Any person deprived of land under paragraphs (b), (c), and (d) of section 143 may bring an action at law against the person upon whose application such land was brought under the provisions of this Act by fraud or misdescription, or such erroneous registration was made, or who acquired title to the estate or interest in question through such fraud, error, or misdescription: Provided always, that in every case in which the fraud, error, or misdescription shall occur upon a transfer made for value, the person making the transfer and receiving the value shall be regarded as the person upon whose application the grant or certificate of title was issued to the transferee: Provided further that, except in the case of fraud or error occasioned by any omission, misrepresentation, or misdescription in the application of such person to bring such land under the provisions of this Act or to be registered as proprietor of such land, estate, or interest, or in any instrument executed by him, such person shall, upon a transfer of such land bona fide for value, cease to be liable for the payment of any damages which but for such transfer might have been recovered from him under the provisions hereinbefore contained; and in such last-mentioned case, and also in case the person against whom such action for damages is directed to be brought as aforesaid shall be dead, or shall have been adjudged bankrupt, or become insolvent, or cannot be found within the jurisdiction, then and in any such case such damages with costs of action may be recovered from the Assurance Fund by action against the Registrar General as nominal defendant: Provided further that in estimating such damages the value of all buildings and other improvements erected or made subsequently to the deprivation shall be excluded.

146. Nothing in this Act contained shall be so interpreted as to leave subject to action for recovery of damages as aforesaid, or to action for recovery of land, or to deprivation of the estate or interest in respect to which he is registered as proprietor, any purchaser or mortgagee bona fide for valuable consideration of land under the provisions of this Act on the plea that his vendor or mortgagor may have been registered as proprietor or procured the registration of such transfer to such purchaser or mortgagee through fraud or error, or may have derived title from or through a person registered as proprietor through fraud or error, and this whether such fraud or error shall consist in wrong description of the boundaries or of the parcels of land, or otherwise, howsoever.

Savings for purchasers for value.

147. Upon making any order affecting the estate or interest of any proprietor of land registered under the provisions of this Act it shall be lawful for the Court or a Judge, in any case in which such proceeding is not herein expressly barred, to direct the Registrar General to cancel any certificate of title or instrument or any entry or memorial in the Register Book relating to such land, estate or interest, and to substitute such certificate of title or entry or to make such other entry as the circumstances of the case require; and the Registrar General shall give effect to such order.

Power of Court to direct cancellation or making of entries, etc.

148. Any person sustaining loss or damage through any omission, mistake, or misfeasance of the Registrar General, or any of his officers or clerks, in the execution of their respective duties under the provisions of this Act, or by the registration of any other person as proprietor of such land, or by any error, omission, or misdescription in any certificate of title, or any entry or memorial in the Register Book, and who, by the provisions of this Act, is barred from bringing action for the recovery of such land, estate, or interest, may, in any case in which the remedy by action for recovery of damages as hereinbefore provided is inapplicable, bring an action for recovery of damages against the Registrar General as nominal defendant.

Payment of damages.

149. If in any such action the plaintiff recover final judgment, then the Court or Judge before whom such action may be tried shall certify the fact of such judgment and the amount of damages and costs recovered, and the amount of such damages and costs shall be paid to the person recovering the same, and shall be charged to the account of the Assurance Fund; and in case the balance to the credit of the Assurance Fund shall be inadequate to defray the amount specified, such sum as may be necessary for that purpose shall be paid out of the Consolidated Fund, and the amount so advanced shall be repaid from the Assurance Fund as the same may thereafter accrue.

Limitation of actions.

150. (1) No action for recovery of damages sustained through deprivation of land, or of any estate or interest in land as hereinbefore described, shall lie or be sustained against the Registrar General, or against the person upon whose application such land was brought under the provisions of this Act, or against the person who applied to be registered as proprietor in respect to such land, or against the person certifying any instrument as aforesaid, unless such action shall be commenced within the period of six years from the date of such deprivation: Provided that any person being under the disability of infancy, or unsoundness of mind may bring such action within six years from the date on which such disability shall have ceased: Provided further, that in no case shall any such action be brought after twenty-seven years shall have elapsed from the accrual of such right of action.
