

DEBBIE-ANN FARRIER is an attorney-at-Law with over twenty-six years solid commercial and corporate law experience, with special interest in corporate finance, rescue and creditors' protection.

She is the first Attorney-at-Law to be licensed under the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act as a Trustee. She possesses extensive experience and knowledge in receiverships and insolvency proceedings in Trinidad and Tobago and the Caribbean.

Between the years 2012-2018 Ms. Farrier was contracted by the Deposit Insurance Corporation in its role as liquidator of financial institutions. There she headed and managed the Legal Department for the liquidation of a notable Investment Bank in Trinidad and Tobago with TT$BNs in assets. She managed a portfolio of receiverships, liquidation and assets recoveries in several Caribbean territories including Martinique, Jamaica, St. Lucia, Antigua, Suriname and Guyana.

In the 1990s, while working in tandem with PWC Jamaica, she established a receivership practice at a prominent law firm. She spent a year at Finsac Ltd; a statutory company mandated to manage failed corporation and financial institutions. She participated in a series of lectures aimed at the banking community on securities and enforcement.

Notable Accomplishments:

- asset recovery across the Caribbean;
- structured commercial negotiations and Settlement Agreements;
- perfected, and liquidated assets;
- managed receiverships and liquidations risks;
- successful dividend distributions (payments) with local and foreign creditors;
- initiated Policies and Processes for insolvency actions;
- steered meetings of creditors, determined List of Creditors and ranking of claims, secured Court Sanctions and Orders;
- investigated and reported on the reasons for the failure of a Financial Institution;
- took legal action against former officers and directors to determine liability;
- brought legal action for projects finance recoveries throughout the Caribbean, and
- settled legal obligations with stakeholders – official receiver, liquidator (Trustee), creditors (secured and unsecured) and the courts.

Academic Qualifications:

Masters of Law Degree (LLM)

Bachelors of Law Degree (LLB) (Hons)

Diploma in Procurement Practices

Diplomas in French

Member of the Law Associations – Trinidad and Tobago, Jamaica and Barbados

FARRIER DURAND LAW:(868)-701-0181 attorneys@farrierdurand-law.com www.farrierdurand-law.com