

Government of the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago
MINISTRY OF FINANCE

For immediate release

May 25th, 2022

MEDIA RELEASE

Consultations with the Trinidad and Tobago Postal Workers Union (TTPWU), Prison Officer's Association (POA) and First Division Association on the proposed increase in the compulsory age of retirement from 60 to 65 years

The Honourable Brian Manning M.P., Minister in the Ministry of Finance continues discussions on the proposed increase in the compulsory age of retirement from 60 to 65 years.

Today, May 25, the Honourable Minister met with members of the Trinidad and Tobago Postal Workers Union (TTPWU), Prison Officer's Association (POA) and First Division Association.

The Minister and union representatives present, held productive and enlightening discussions surrounding the subject matter.

Consultations with other trade unions will continue in the near future.

- END -

The Honourable Brian Manning M.P.
Minister in the Ministry of Finance

Photo: The Honourable Brian Manning, Minister in the Ministry of Finance with Mr. Ceron Richards, President-POA (Minister's left), Mr. Shellon Trim, President-TTPWU (Minister's immediate right) and Mr. Felix Alexis, President-First Division Association (Minister's far right).