

CUSTOMS AND EXCISE DIVISION
MINISTRY OF FINANCE

DECLARATION OF CURRENCY OR MONETARY INSTRUMENTS

ALL ARRIVING AND DEPARTING PASSENGERS are advised that they are required to DECLARE to a Customs Officer on duty at the Airport or Sea port whether they are carrying cash currency or monetary instruments in excess of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000) USD or its equivalent in any currency or Twenty Thousand Dollars ($20,000) TTD.

Bearer Negotiable Instruments include Travellers' Cheques, Promissory Notes, Bills of Exchange and Bank Drafts.

ALL ARRIVING AND DEPARTING PASSENGERS ARE WARNED THAT THE MAKING OF A FALSE DECLARATION WITH RESPECT TO THE AMOUNT OF CASH OR THE VALUE OF MONETARY INSTRUMENTS BEING CARRIED MAY RESULT IN SEVERE PENALTIES.

COMPTROLLER OF CUSTOMS AND EXCISE

www.customs.gov.tt