Finance Bill 2026 Laid in Parliament

The Honourable Davendranath Tancoo, M.P., Minister of Finance, laid the Finance Bill, 2026 in the House of Representatives today, June 5th, 2026.

The Finance Bill, 2026 continues to address a number of significant areas of Government policy, inclusive but not limited to, tax exemptions for approved pension fund plans and approved deferred annuity plans, pension reform for the Protective Services, revisions to the gaming tax under the Liquor Licences Act and amendments to the Landlord Business Surcharge.

Additionally, in keeping with Government's fight against crime, the Bill also seeks to strengthen criminal penalties across a wide cross-section of offences.

The Finance Bill, 2026 will be debated in the House of Representatives on Wednesday 10th June, 2026.

Parliament was also advised that the Bill is expected to go before the Standing Finance Committee on Friday 12th June, 2026.
